An Idaho Tragedy.

Boise City, Feb. 2 .- A shockng tragedy occurred at Caldwell yesterday. Edward Helm was killed by A. C. Carle, a barber. Helm and Johnson dressed a box in woman's clothes and intro luced him to Carle, who, on learning the joke, became indignant and threatened Helm. The two men met. Helm, who is a muscular man at tempted to thrash Carl, who drew pistol and shot Helm, inflicting fatal injuries. Death was instanneous.

Helm was formerly an infantry soldier, stationed at Boise barracks, and has a family living in Oregon. He was formerly a hard drinker, but of late years has been religiously inclined. His mother resides near Colfax, W. T. Carle escaped. A sheriff's posse are on his track, but he will probably not be captured.

The Canadian Pacific railway will apply to the British Columbia legislature for a charter to build a road between Koetenai lake and the Columbia river, and steamers will be put on the Columbia between the terminus and Revelstoke. The object of the scheme is to prevent the trade of the rich mining district from going south by the Kootenai river to the Northern Pacific.

Catarrh Cured.

A clergyman, after years of suffer ing from that loathsome disease, Ca-tarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dread ful disease sending a self addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Law-rence, 88 Warren St., New York City will receive the recipe free of charge

A woman went into a Boston store and inquired for a cravat "Do you want a simple tie, or a Windsor, a Harvard, a four-inhand, or what?" "Any one will do." "But gentlemen have some choice in neckwear." "Never you mind; the man this is for will wear it and say nothing. He's dead.'
